PC:

By this application leave is sought against the order of acquittal passed by the learned trial Judge. The learned trial Judge has considered all the facts and circumstances attending the prosecution. He has given cogent reasons for disbelieving the prosecutrix. It is an admitted position on record that the accused had relations with the prosecutrix for several months and that resulted in pregnancy of the prosecutrix. At the highest it is a case of breach of promise to marry. There is nothing on record to show that the consent for cohabitation was obtained by undue influence, coercion or fraud. Hence no offence is made out. The learned trial Judge was right in acquitting the accused. Hence leave refused.
